As Good As Gold

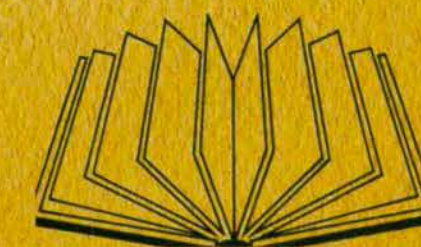

PROPERTY OF:
WRHS ALUMNI ASSN.

DEDICATION

Mr. Hammond has been a class adviser, the Drama Club adviser and director, the Latin Club adviser and even the adviser to the Fencing Club. His willingness to help students and to promote new and different learning experiences for his students have made a lasting impression.

The Class of 2011 would like to dedicate the 2011 yearbook to Mr. Robert Hammond. The American Heritage Dictionary of the American Language defines dedicated as "Wholly committed to a particular course of thought or action; devoted". Reflection on the teaching of Mr. Hammond over the course of his time at West Rutland School allows us to see that the word "dedication" aptly describes him. We want to thank you for all the time, patience and care you have shown us..

CONGRATULATIONS!

Today is your day.

You're off to Great Places!

You're off and away!

You have brains in your head.

You have feet in your shoes.

You'll be seeing great sights!

You'll join the high fliers who soar to high heights.

... And will you succeed?

YES! You will, indeed!

(98 and 3/4 percent guaranteed.)

You can steer yourself any direction you choose.

You're on your own. And you know what you know.

And YOU are the guy who'll decide where to go.

... OH! THE PLACES YOU'LL GO!

You'll be on your way up!

KID, YOU'LL MOVE MOUNTAINS!

So... you're off to Great Places!

Today is your day!

Your mountain is waiting.

So... get on your way!

Prophecy

It is the year 2021, the graduating class of 2011 is about to arrive at the Franklin Ball Room where their senior prom took place 10 years ago. Tonight much like their final prom, will be a night to cherish and remember, forever. First to arrive, is Sabryna Bisson with her first aid kit from the battle field, just in case someone gets injured. Next to arrive come together, Kristen Brewster and Heidi Byrne. They both just flew in from Florida, both are now in helping professions and making bank. Ryan Chamberland pulls up in a big loud truck, now a great mechanic he is fixing the classes vehicles for cheap. Cassie Clark cheerfully runs up, cat in hand, cheering W.R.S. She boasts about how great of a math teacher she is, how successful her squad is, and how great her family is. Michael Condon, now an engineer comes too show everyone pictures of things he has built. Abby Cox enters wearing a floral top, with belt, leggings, wavy skirt, and boots. She's a flower child for sure. She's carrying her art portfolio and a bag made of environmentally friendly material. She's now an art teacher in a small elementary school and has a great online business selling her hand crafted jewelry, and pottery. She sits down and is excited to show everyone new pictures of her niece Evie. She tells everyone how she had spent some time in college traveling the world and shows them pictures of the people, places, and things she's seen. She's happy to tell everyone how she's engaged has just bought a new house in NH and is very happy. Zoe Davis drives up in her smart car, that she bought with the money she makes now because she is a great Molecular Biologist. Gregory DuPrey runs in kicking a soccer ball. He is now the coach of a championship soccer team. Nathan Edwards is too busy baking his beige wedding cakes to show up, but he sends a complimentary cake to fill in for his absence. Nicholas Fredette, just winning the Megabucks, rolls up in his brand new Mustang. He is handing out money to his fellow classmates. Ryan Harvey is in a bunker somewhere in the mid-west fearing the world ended in 2012, but none of us have the heart to tell him otherwise. Joe Henry walks in wearing a t-shirt he recently designed. He now works at a graphic design firm. Tyler Johnson rolls up in his Lexus listening to the newest stuff, talking on the phone with Dre. Ever since he became the new hottest producer, the rap game won't leave him alone. Kaitlyn LaRock rides in on her champion barrel horse, from a long line of the breeding she has done on her farm over the past few years. On the side she is a Radiologist in Nevada. Next to arrive is Samuel Loso and Alec Gosselin, They have both recently been working on designing the new environmentally friendly apartment complex. Sam is now married and has adopted two children that he found while traveling in the Peace Corps. Chad Lyons cannot make it. He is too busy with the OKC, helping Russell Westbrook come back from an ankle sprain. Josh Marcille arrives wearing his new "Iron Man" robotic suit he designed. Logan Moser is now the proud owner of a day care she opened up after college. She is full of fun stories and pictures of her big family. Zachary Razanouski is now professional actor on Broadway. He tells stories of all our favorite celebrities, and their most revealing moments. Kayla Stewart is now a great substance abuse counselor proud to talk of her son, now bigger than ever and still growing. Last to arrive, is Alicia Horwedel the one always known to be late. The Class of 2011 celebrates the night just like they did 10 years ago. It's good to be together again.

Have a great day!

CASSIE MARIE CLARK CLASS OF 2011

To My Dearest Cassie-

You were a sweet surprise and have done nothing but make me smile and proud every time you set a goal, reach for it, and accomplish it to the highest degree. It is so hard for me to believe that you are headed off to college this fall and not the itty bitty baby that I held in my arms. I love you and am so so proud of you. Reach for the stars, baby girl because nothing can hold you back.

Love always, Mom.

To My Cassie Doodle-

I am so proud to call you daughter. You came into my life like a little spit-fire and, still, like to give me a hard time. You have made such a huge success in high school, I know that it will only continue into college.

I hope that you will never stop painting, as your talent is amazing to me. Keep up to great work girl.

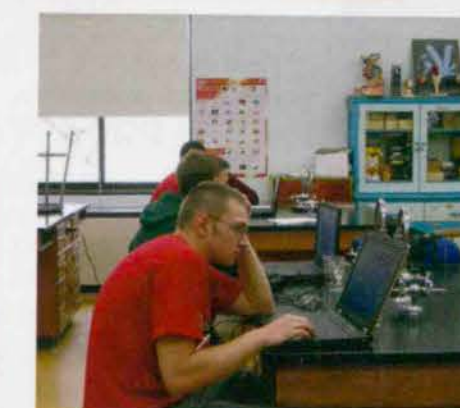

Love, Dad.

Dear Cass-

Mom has made us think of nice things to say, so we are really trying. Congratulations on your graduation. Keep up the good work. Oh yeah, and thanks for belaying for us at the rock climbing place. Best of luck in college.

Love, Zachary and Lance

CANDIDS!

Logan,
We are very proud of you for your hard work and tenacity;
yet the sweet spirit you possess and the fine young woman you have become. You have much to offer to whatever course in life you choose. We have no doubt that you will attain all that you set your mind and heart to accomplish.
Love Always,
Dad, Mom, and Family

Congratulations

Kristina!

on all your accomplishments
You've traveled so far...

from our curly haired lil' kid to such a wonderful young lady!

Keep getting a "kick" out of life
We are so proud of you and love you so much!!!

Sean and Dad

Congratulations

Kristina (Kris, Tina, Teen, T-Rex)
It seems like just yesterday when you came running up the bleachers to sit with Kate and I before a 7th & 8th grade basketball games and now you are a "Big Senior" and graduating!!

Pretty much from that day forward you and Katelyn became best friends and Pres and I gained a second daughter. We are so proud of all your accomplishments, your courage and your strength and we wish you all the best! Lots of love always,

Tris, Pres, Lyn, and Joey

To my favorite sister, I am proud of you beyond words.
Your maturity immense, your determination vast, and your kindness uncharacteristic of a girl your age. You have taught me many things. You are my pillar of advice and the best Aunt a niece could ever ask for. I look forward to the rest of our lives with you by my side and I, by yours. So as Dr.
Suess said "today is your day! your mountain-is waiting so...
get on your way."

Abbey, even as a little girl you had your own unique sense of individuality and style. You always marched to the beat of your own drum. We are certain that any path you choose to travel you will be a success. We are very proud of the fine young women you have become.

Love Mom+ Dad

You have always been there for me. There have been good times and bad times but deep down I know you really love me and I love you. Avery

Heidi,

"Reach for the stars and play in the sand. And remember that all roads
lead you home."
Congratulations!
We Love You
Mom and Dad

Kaitlyn,

It doesn't seem that long ago we brought you home from the hospital. And look at you now. We are so very proud of you! We all love you too, too, too much!

Love, Mom, Scott, Tara, Nikki, Andrew, Roo & Tyler (Chick)

Sam:

As you already know, we are very proud of all your accomplishments. It's hard to believe it is your time to graduate from high school and move on to a higher education, which is something you've been looking forward to for a long time. There is no doubt you will succeed in anything you do.
You have many achievements to date and we're certain the list will continue to grow. You have always been on task with the matter at hand, whether that be school work, extra curricular activities like Upward Bound, your employment and anything else you have been involved with. It seems like one moment you were playing in your sandbox and we turned around to find you all grown up. We will be here to support you in all your future endeavors. The house will certainly not be the same without you in it. The road is wide open ahead of you. Who knows where it will take you? Congratulations on all your accomplishments and best wishes for your future.
You have grown up to be a fine young man.

Love Always. Mom. Dad and Lucv

Michael

You are off to travel a new road.
Whether it is the road most traveled.
Whether it is the road least traveled.
May you take some time to see what there is to see.
May you take some time to enjoy the road.
May you take some time to meet each new experience.
On the new road you will travel
Love, Mom and Dad

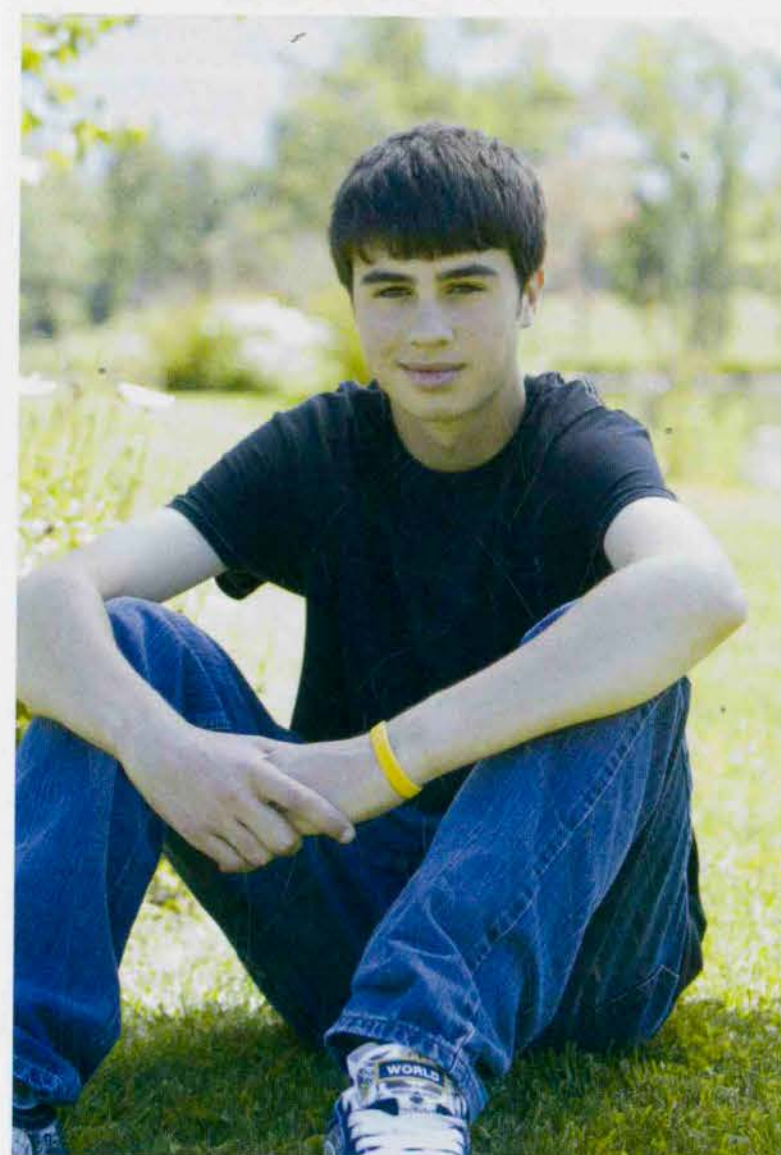

Congratulations to the West Rutland
Senior Class of 2011!!!

Ryan,

We love you and are so proud of you
May you be blessed in all your future endeavors.

Love,

Tragedy in Tucson

A mass shooting in Tucson, AZ kills 6 people and injures 13, including Congresswoman Gabrielle Giffords.

Sunny Side Up

The Solar Impulse, a plane fueled only by sunlight, completes a 26-hour flight without using fuel or creating pollution. The Impulse hopes to be the first solar-powered piloted fixed-wing aircraft to circle the earth.

Turns Out You Can Save 6,000 Lives Every Year

Studies surface indicating cell phone use while driving is as dangerous as driving drunk. Many states tighten up their cell phone laws, and Oprah Winfrey launches the "No Phone Zone" campaign.

Indonesia Struck By Tsunami, Volcano

A volcanic eruption and tsunami wreak havoc on Indonesia, destroying villages and claiming hundreds of lives, displacing more than 20,000 people. The subsequent relief effort is hampered by bad weather.

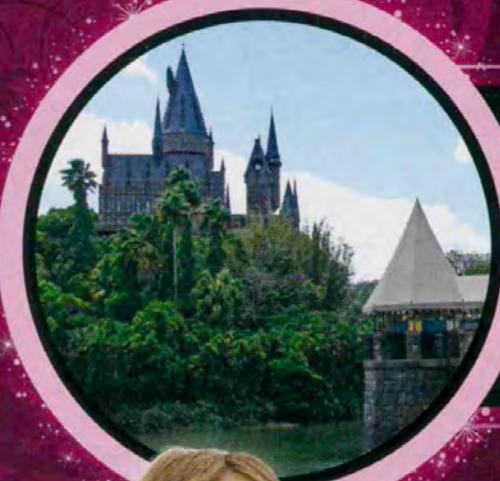

Republicans Dominate Midterms

During the 2010 midterm elections, the Republican party gains 680 state legislative seats and John Boehner (R-Ohio) replaces Nancy Pelosi (D-California) as Speaker of the House.

Mr. Wizard's World

Now muggles from all around the world can experience the excitement of battling a dragon, taming the Hippogriff or being chosen by a wand at The Wizarding World of Harry Potter attraction at Universal Orlando Resort in Florida.

Too Young To Drive? Float.

Fourteen-year-old Laura Dekker hopes to become the youngest person to sail around the world by herself. She sets sail on her yearlong journey from Den Osse in her home country of the Netherlands, and continues on a watery path that will take her around the world.

Bring Your Own Bag

Select U.S. cities ban the use of plastic grocery bags in stores in an effort to promote using customers' own canvas bags to eliminate waste and pollution.

Prince William and Kate Set a Date

The world watches a fairy tale unfold when Britain's Prince William announces his engagement to his college sweetheart Kate Middleton.

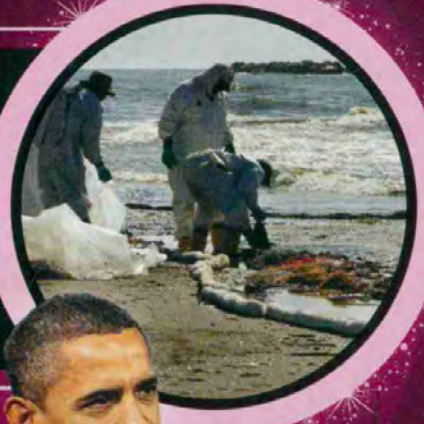

This Is One Serious Pledge Drive

Almost 60 billionaires pledge to give at least half of their wealth to charitable organizations of their choice. The effort, named "The Giving Pledge," is led by Warren Buffett and Bill and Melinda Gates with the intention of re-energizing philanthropy in people of all income levels.

The Oil and Gaffe Industry

An oil rig explosion that kills 11 people causes over 206 million barrels of oil to pour into the Gulf of Mexico over five months. The spill's effects on the environment, wildlife and economy last long after the leak is sealed.

Combat Operations Cease in Iraq

After seven years of desert combat for American soldiers, President Barack Obama declares that Operation Iraqi Freedom is over, and all but 50,000 troops return home.

Very Little Tea Is Actually Served

The Tea Party political movement gains popularity at rallies endorsing their stated principles of "fiscal responsibility, adherence to the Constitution, and limited government."

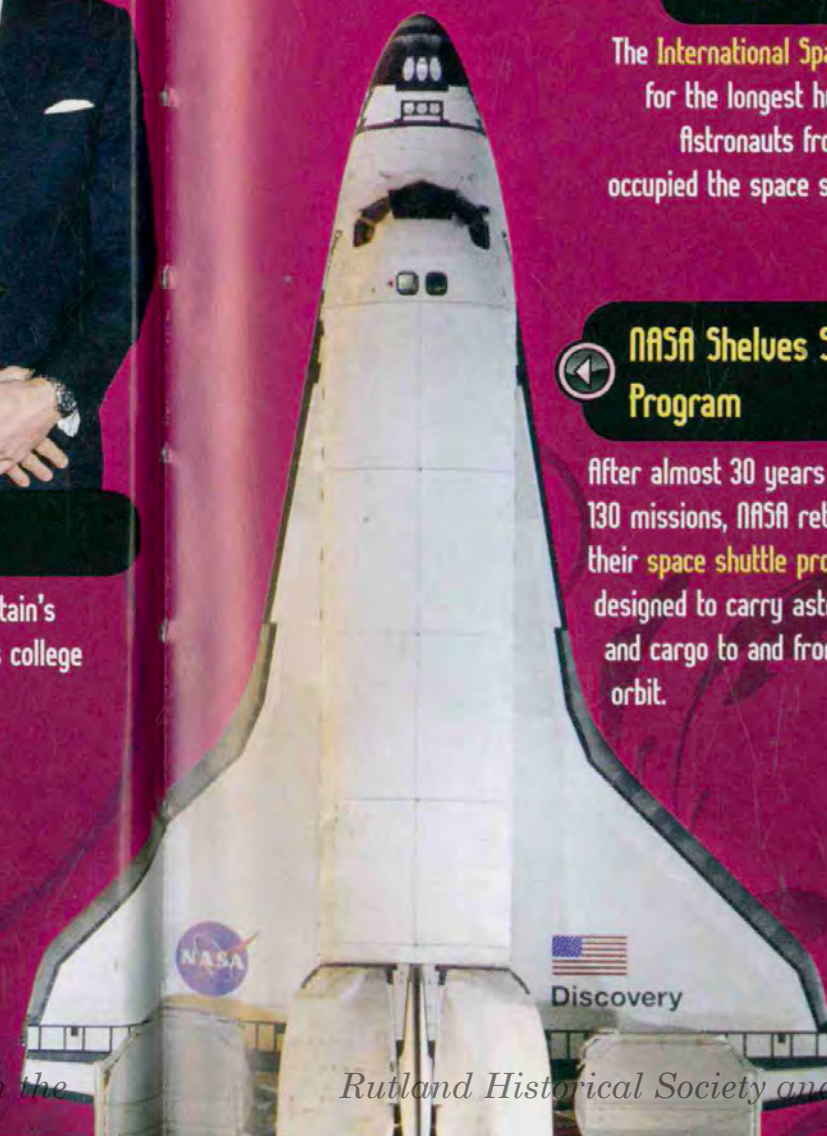

A Zero-Gravity Get-Together

The International Space Station sets the record for the longest human occupation of space. Astronauts from different nations have occupied the space station continuously since November 2, 2000.

NASA Shelves Space Shuttle Program

After almost 30 years and over 130 missions, NASA retires their space shuttle program, designed to carry astronauts and cargo to and from Earth's orbit.

From Super-Bad to Super-Dad

In Despicable Me, supervillain Gru has a plan to pull off the greatest heist in history: to steal the moon. But when three adorable orphans enter his life, Gru discovers that the children actually seem to care about him, and a change of heart ensues.

It's Not Ogre 'Til It's Ogre

In Shrek Forever After, Shrek longs for the days when ogres terrified the villagers. He is duped into signing a pact with Rumpelstiltskin that lands him in an alternate version of Far Far Away. There, ogres are hunted, Rumpelstiltskin is king and Shrek and Fiona have never met.

Decisions, Decisions

Bella is forced to choose between Edward and Jacob in Twilight Saga: Eclipse, the third installment in the Twilight film series.

Laughter, Rinse and Repeat

The Disney musical Tangled updates the fairy tale of Rapunzel, adding swashbuckling action, hilarious comedy and gallons of shampoo and conditioner.

The Green King of All Media

His meteoric rise to fame from radio in the 1930s, comic books and film serials in the 1940s, network television in the 1960s, to the big screen in 2011 may have taken over seven decades, but The Green Hornet finally has a blockbuster Hollywood release to add to his resumé.

The Queen of Mean

Tim Burton's unique slant on Alice in Wonderland sees Alice reuniting with her old friends and learning of her true destiny: to end the evil Red Queen's reign of terror.

Too Busy to Play the Game?

Disney releases Prince of Persia: The Sands of Time hoping that gamers will flock to movie theatres to watch Jake Gyllenhaal control the main character.

The Toys Are Back in Town

We've grown up with Pixar's Toy Story movies, so it's through teary eyes that we watch Toy Story 3 send Andy off to college. As he leaves home, Buzz Lightyear, Woody and the rest of the toys are forced to start a new life in the Sunnyside Daycare Center where untamed toddlers with their sticky little fingers do not play nice.

What's On Your Mind?

The Social Network chronicles the inception, creation and intense legal complications surrounding the one website we seemingly can't live without: Facebook.

Gotta Train the Lizard

In How to Train Your Dragon, dragons are hunted by Vikings. But when Hiccup becomes friends with a dragon named Toothless, he finds that there is more to the creatures than he assumed.

A Day at the Races

Penny Chenery Tweedy guides her precocious stallion Secretariat to set the unbeaten record for winning the Triple Crown.

Tron Gets a Graphics Upgrade

Almost 30 years after the original film, Disney re-boots the story of humans doing battle in a digital world with Tron: Legacy.

Stay Tuned for Part 2

Even though we already know how the story ends, the two-part release of Harry Potter and the Deathly Hallows leaves us hanging on the edge of our seats as we await the final chapter's conclusion to hit theatres in July 2011.

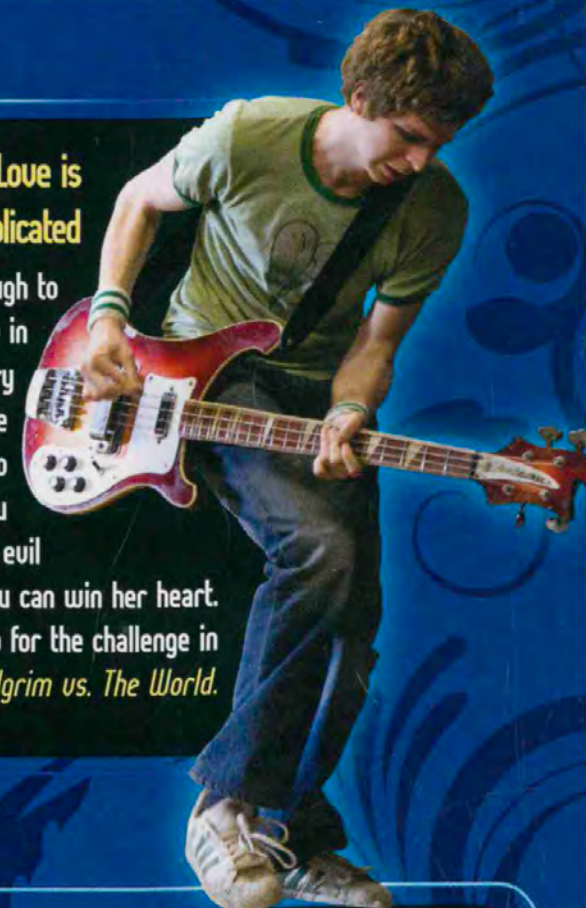

Robbing Hollywood of Oscar-Winning Stories

If the epic re-telling of the story of Robin Hood looks a little bit like the Oscar magnet Gladiator, that's only because they share the same director, leading man, and theme.

Sometimes Love is Complicated

If you think it's tough to ask out that cutie in chemistry class, try scoring some alone time with a girl who requires that you defeat her "seven evil exes" before you can win her heart. Scott Pilgrim is up for the challenge in Scott Pilgrim vs. The World.

Heavy Metal Movie

In Iron Man 2, the world now knows that billionaire inventor Tony Stark is Iron Man, which brings pressure from the government, the press, and the public for Stark to share his technology with the American military.

He's Obviously Lonely and Blue

When the supervillain Megamind finally achieves his dream of defeating Metroman and conquering Metro City, he finds that his life lacks purpose until he creates another superhero to fight.

For People Who Don't Like Musicals

The 8th season of the CBS crime drama NCIS continues to pull incredible ratings, despite being opposite Glee. (Thanks, DVR!)

Nobody Puts Baby in a Corner

Despite landing in the hospital after injuring her back, Jennifer Grey and Derek Hough beat out Bristol Palin and Mark Ballas to win season 11 of Dancing with the Stars.

If You're Happy and You Know It Sing a Song

Glee continues on their path to world domination with performances of Empire State of Mind, the Rocky Horror Picture Show, Michael Jackson's Thriller, and Gwyneth Paltrow performing a little Cee-Lo Green. Next stop for William McKinley High School: the national competition in New York City.

West Beverly Class of 90210

The third season of 90210 welcomes the West Beverly kids to their senior year of high school, which promises to be an unforgettable journey into the lives of those lucky few who call 90210 home.

Coming Soon: Tights and Flights

The end of the beginning starts here. Taking flight in its tenth and final season, Smallville brings the modern retelling of a hero's legendary origin to a close as Clark Kent soars toward claiming his birthright - the big red "S" on his bright blue tights.

Penny Tees and Pranks

Nickelodeon's iCarly continues to deliver, this year giving us guest appearances by Jack Black and Jane Lynch, and adding Gibby Gibson to the cast of characters.

Lights Out, Friday Night

The cast of Friday Night Lights gives 100 percent out there, but that's not enough to keep the series alive beyond the fifth season. But hey, that's still one season longer than most high school athletes get to play.

Weird to the Bright Red Beard

After stepping down from hosting NBC's Tonight Show, Conan O'Brien grows a beard and moves his talk show to cable network TBS.

City Codes Are Hilarious

Season three of Parks and Recreation sees the Parks Department return to work to discover that the budget crisis still looms and they must work to justify their department's existence.

Life is About Overcoming Obstacles

In Wipeout, twenty-four contestants compete against each other and the clock to make it through wild obstacle courses in hopes of winning the $50,000 prize.

Judge Harshly, Lest Ye Be Judged

Superstar singers Steven Tyler and Jennifer Lopez try to fill Simon Cowell's snarky shoes as they join Randy Jackson to form American Idol's latest lineup of judges, filling in seats previously occupied by Paula Abdul, Kara DioGuardi and Ellen DeGeneres.

His Is A House of Love

As season seven of House begins, House and Cuddy attempt to make a real relationship work and face the question as to whether their new relationship will affect their ability to diagnose patients.

Please, Try This at Home

Minute to Win It features everyday Americans competing in 60-second challenges with household objects for a shot at a million bucks. But as the money increases, so does the level of difficulty of the challenges.

It's Not Polite to Gossip

Season four of Gossip Girl opens with a radiant Serena and Blair enjoying their grand and romantic summer in Paris... until Chuck mysteriously arrives in town with a new girlfriend and a new identity.

Sometimes Life Can be Just That

Life Unexpected centers around 16-year-old foster child Lux, who, when reunited with her birth parents, discovers she's from an unlikely family.

Blades of Glory

Taking the concept of Dancing With the Stars and putting it on ice, the ABC network pairs professional figure skaters with celebrities in Skating With the Stars.

Who's Got All The Right Moves?

So You Think You Can Dance keeps viewers amazed and inspired as talented dancers compete to be named America's Favorite Dancer.

Haven't Been This Lost Since "Lost"

Some sci-fi shows are too big to be contained in only one universe, which is exactly why Fringe bounces between two different realities. The only thing certain with Fringe is uncertainty.

Music

No Popsicle Is Safe

No matter where you are in America, there's nowhere to hide from Katy Perry's popsicle-melting hit song California Gurls.

He's Still a Baby, Baby, Baby, Ohhh...

At sixteen years of age, Justin Bieber releases My World 2.0 and My Worlds Acoustic while embarking on his first headlining tour. He is also nominated for two Grammy™ awards, including Best New Artist and Best Pop Vocal Album.

Definitely Train's Most Popular Track

While on it's way to becoming the most downloaded song of 2010, Train's Hey, Soul Sister is certified quadruple platinum by the RIAA. The song is also used incessantly by Samsung to sell 3-D TVs and silent washing machines. But the true mark of success comes when the song is performed by the cast of Glee.

He Wants to Put You in a Song

Put You in a Song is the lead-off single from Keith Urban's newest album Get Closer. Urban plays surprise concerts in New York and Philadelphia to promote the album which debuts at No. 2 on the U.S. Billboard Top Country Albums chart.

Taylor Swift is Speak-tacular

Taylor Swift's third album Speak Now sells over one million copies in its first week. Eleven tracks from the album appear on Billboard's Hot 100 all at once, giving Taylor the all-time record for most simultaneous songs by a female artist on the chart.

He's Only Gonna Break, Break Your Heart

When it's time to move your body on the dance floor, reach for heartbreaker Taio Cruz's Rokstarr, the album that has produced at least three dance floor anthems, Break Your Heart, Higher and Dynamite.

A Little Something for the Soccer Fans

Shakira releases her seventh studio album Sale el Sol and her single Waka Waka (This Time for Africa) is chosen as the official song for the 2010 FIFA World Cup.

The Award Goes to the Lady

At the 45th American Country Music Awards, country music trio Lady Antebellum is awarded Top Vocal Group, Song of the Year, and Single of the Year. The Nashville trio also nabs six Grammy™ nominations.

Beatles for Sale

Since the inception of iTunes, fans of The Beatles have pined for their songs to become available, and finally, the wait is over.

Always Keep Them Guessing, MGMT

On Congratulations, the second studio album from MGMT, the duo departs from the pop music hit singles of their first album and expands their range towards a more psychedelic sound. The video for the first single, Flash Delirium, is nominated for an MTV Video Music Award.

Taking it Back to the Beginning

The Black Eyed Peas sell millions of albums, win tons of awards and perform live during the Super Bowl Halftime Show. And according to their latest album title, that's only The Beginning.

Carrie Underwood Wed

While touring and releasing hit singles from her album Play On, Carrie Underwood still manages to find time to have a sparkly southern wedding with her groom, Nashville Predators hockey star Mike Fisher. The couple tied the knot at the Ritz Carlton Reynolds Plantation in Georgia.

Misery Loves Company

Misery is the first single from Hands All Over, the third studio album from Los Angeles rockers Maroon 5. The album debuts at number 2 on the Billboard 200.

For the Gleeek on the Go

Sometimes we gotta get places - walk to class, drive a car, ride a bike. But we still want our Glee fix. What to do? Oh, that's right - they have soundtrack albums available.

Are You Ready For Some Football?

Henny Chesney's ode to high school football, The Boys of Fall, reaches the top of the charts the week of October 9, 2010 - the same week many schools observe homecoming. Coincidence?

Selena Gomez is a Scene Stealer

In addition to making her theatrical film debut as Beatrice "Beezus" Quimby in Ramona and Beezus, Selena Gomez's band Selena Gomez and the Scene release their second album, A Year Without Rain, which debuts at No. 4 on the Billboard 200 chart.

Keep It Rocking 'Til 6:00 AM

The first single from Jay Sean's album Freeze Time is 2012 (It Ain't the End) inspiring us to party like there's no tomorrow.

You're the Controller

Microsoft changes the way we play video games with the X-Box Kinect. The Kinect does away with traditional controllers and instead uses infra-red sensors to detect your body's movements, translating your actions into a truly interactive gaming experience.

From Classic TV to the Latest "Glee"

Hulu lets you watch TV and movies online, and Hulu Plus puts an expanded selection of content right on your iPad, iPhone, Playstation 3 or X-Box.

Big Screen, Little Size

The Vuzix Wrap 920 video eyewear simulates a 67-inch screen while discreetly disguised as sunglasses.

Loud Alarms Prevent Tardy Slips

Lots of kids use their iPhone as their alarm clock, but docking it to the UltremMac Luna SST increases your alarm's volume and your chances of waking up on time.

Netflix Plays The Game

Focused on streaming movies instantly into homes, Netflix makes itself available on almost all gaming platforms, including PS3, X-Box and Wii.

Sun, Charge My Smartphone

If you're the kind of person who can talk on the phone all night, hopefully you left your Scosche SolBat II in the sun all day. The SolBat is a solar-powered battery backup for your smartphone or USB device.

Be Ready For That "YouTube Moment"

When whackiness strikes, you've got your trusty Flip HD video camera at your side, ready to record up to 16 GB of potential viral video gold.

Two is Better than One

For years the iconic iPhone has been carried exclusively by AT&T. After years of speculation, Apple and Verizon announce that the iPhone 4 is coming to the Verizon network. Now Verizon customers no longer have to stumble through life without knowing the joys of apps like Plants vs. Zombies and Words With Friends.

Why Type When You Can SWYPE?

Samsung's Galaxy S might have been conceived by teens. The SWYPE, Write & Go technology is the fastest way to input text messages and update Facebook.

"But Daddy, It's Good for the Planet..."

Cross your fingers and hope that Audi's all-electric concept car – the super sleek, super stylish e-tron Spyder – goes into production before your super sweet sixteenth.

Never Leave Your Couch Again

Boxee is a media center that scours the internet for the funny video clips, TV shows and movies that you want to see and streams them directly to your television.

Some Games Are Bigger Than Your Phone

Sure, fiddle around with your little apps between classes, but when it's time for some serious gaming, the big consoles deliver some big titles, including Final Fantasy XIII and Need For Speed: Hot Pursuit.

Give Your Couch a Rest

Following the success of the Nintendo Wii, Sony releases the PlayStation Move motion video game controller, which translates your physical movements into commands for compatible games.

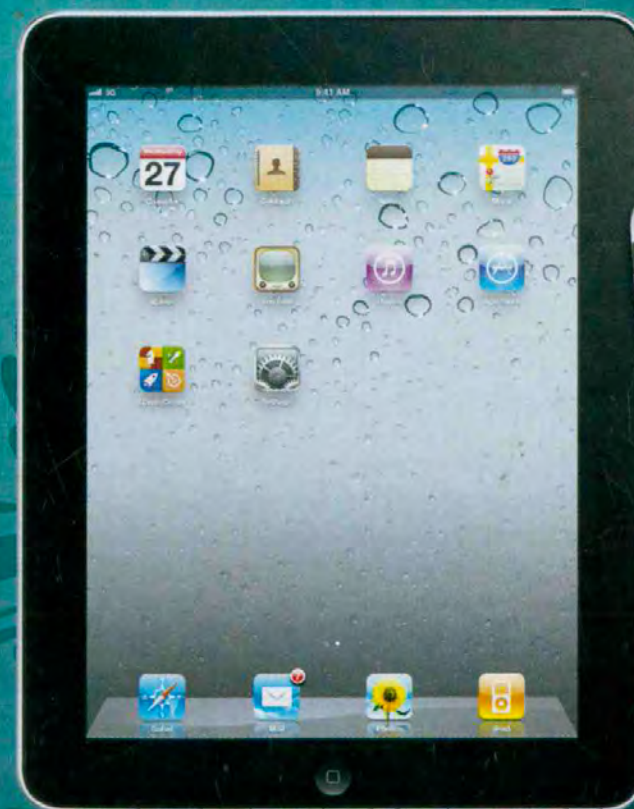

Keeping Young Drivers Safe And Sound

ZOMM is the wireless cell phone leash, panic alarm and hands-free speakerphone that is appearing on the keychains of young drivers everywhere.

No More Pencils, No More Books?

Could this be the beginning of the end of textbooks? As Apple's iPad is the must-have gadget of the year, a handful of high schools issue them to students on the merit of the iPad's potential as an innovative learning tool both inside and outside of the classroom. Once textbook publishers catch onto the potential of the digital education market, we may be able to say goodbye to book-filled backpacks.

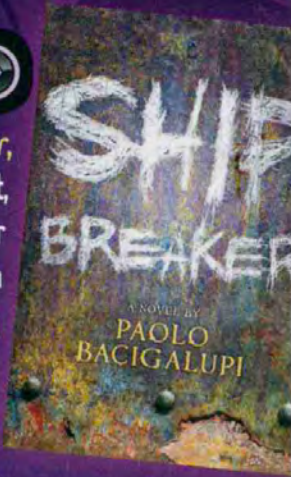

Her Whole Life Has Been Leading Up to This

In Amanda Hocking's Ascend - the final chapter in the Trylle Trilogy - a war is looming on the horizon and Wendy's fate seems sealed. Everything she sacrifices might be in vain if she can't save the ones she loves.

Not a Book About Pirates

In Paolo Bacigalupi's Ship Breaker, Nailer works the Gulf Coast, scavenging grounded oil tankers for parts. But when he discovers an exquisite clipper ship beached during a recent hurricane, he faces the most important decision of his life: Strip the ship for all it's worth or rescue its lone survivor, a beautiful and wealthy girl who could lead him to a better life.

Bringing an End to Hunger Games

In Suzanne Collins' Mockingjay, Katniss has survived the Hunger Games twice, but she's still not safe. The Capitol is angry. The Capitol wants revenge. Who do they think should pay for the unrest? Katniss. And what's worse, President Snow has made it clear that no one else is safe either.

BOOKS

Please Don't Steal Books

Markus Zusak's The Book Thief is the story of Liesel, a nine-year-old German girl shortly before World War II who learns first-hand of the ability of books to feed the soul.

You Read The Saga, Now See The Pictures

The must-have Twilight Saga: Official Illustrated Guide is the definitive encyclopedic reference to the unforgettable world Stephenie Meyer created in Twilight, New Moon, Eclipse, Breaking Dawn, and The Short Second Life of Bree Tanner.

Call Us Intrigued

Caught between two worlds: Puerto Rico and New York, Maria does her best to find her place within the unfamiliar culture of the barrio in Judith Ortiz Cofer's Call Me Maria.

West Rutland High School

Class of 2011

The seal is circular with a green border. Inside the border, the words "WEST RUTLAND" are written in a semi-circle at the top, and "ESTABLISHED 1895" is written in a semi-circle at the bottom. In the center of the seal is a detailed illustration of a Native American figure, likely a Native American, holding a bow and arrow.
